

The Catholic University of Eichstätt-Ingolstadt (KU) is a non-state university under church leadership and officially recognized by the Free State of Bavaria. It is committed to strong research and excellent teaching and combines first-class study conditions with an international focus. Eight faculties offer a wide range of subjects for around 5,000 students. The University employs 900 people of different faiths and beliefs. Grounded in the Christian view of human life, the KU aims to create an academic and educational culture of responsibility.

The Professorship of Music Education and Music Didactics at the Faculty of Philosophy and Education invites applications for a part-time position (50%) as to be filled by April 1, 2022, for a limited period of two years with the envisaged option of an extension. The place of work shall be Eichstätt. Provided that the requirements are met, remuneration in the private-law employment relationship will be according to pay grade E 13 TV-L.

Lecturer with specified function (Lehrkraft für besondere Aufgaben (m/w/d))

Your responsibilities

The successful candidate will deliver lectures in the Master's degree program Inclusive Music Education/Community Music, hold examinations and take on organizational tasks as well as duties as part of the academic self-administration. The teaching load is 9 teaching units per week (9 SWS). We seek candidates with particular commitment when it comes to networking activities with external partners, internationalization of degree programs, acquisition of third-party funding and support for research projects.

Your profile

Applicants must have completed a degree in music education or a comparable subject with a specialty in music education, e.g. in the field of social work. They should also have at least two years of relevant work experience in music education - either in an academic or an applied position. Applicants are also expected to have extracurricular experience in teaching music, especially with regard to working with diverse groups and should be excellent teachers. They are expected to show commitment and take pleasure in interdisciplinary collaboration and have the willingness to familiarize themselves with new subject areas. Experience with teaching at university level and academic qualifications are desirable. Candidates with a PhD or a successfully completed Zweite Staatsprüfung are encouraged to apply. The successful candidate should speak German sufficiently fluently to perform their tasks according to the standards indicated.

Our services

- Attractive and team-oriented workplace in a modern higher education environment
- Interesting and varied range of responsibilities and tasks
- Broad range of internal and external professional development and continuing education offers
- Welfare benefits in the public service

Your application

Please send your application with the usual supporting documents to Prof. Dr. Daniel Mark Eberhard via e-mail to daniel.eberhard@ku.de by December 1, 2021 (please combine all documents in one PDF file). All submitted application documents will be destroyed in accordance with data protection regulations after the hiring process has been completed.

All employees are obliged to acknowledge the nature and mission of the KU as stipulated in its Mission Statement and Foundation Charter. The University is therefore interested in receiving applications with relevant information in this regard.

The KU is committed to promoting equal opportunities for men and women, and aims to ensure that its members are able to balance work and family life. Candidates with severe disabilities who are equally suitable to other applicants will be prioritized.